Part II of III.

Applicants are requested, but not required, to complete this part of the Appointment Application. The Business Law Section strives to have the composition of its Standing and Ad Hoc Committees reflect the diversity of its membership. The Section urges members of underrepresented groups to apply for Committee membership in all respects including, but not limited to age, race, ethnicity, size and type of practice and location. It is the policy of the California Lawyers Association to provide equal access to CLA entities to all applicants. The California Lawyers Association does not discriminate against persons on the basis of gender, race, color, ancestry, religious creed, national origin, physical disability (including HIV and AIDS) or mental disability, medical condition (cancer), age (over 40), marital status, denial of family care leave, political affiliation, sexual orientation, disabled veteran or Vietnam era veteran status.

The following information is not required and any decision to supply all or any part of the requested information will not adversely affect your chances for appointment.
