Join Us for a Discussion for Any Law Students and New Lawyers Who Are Thinking of Pursuing a Public Service Career

Ever wondered what a career in the public law sector is really like? This panel discussion is for you!

The CLA Public Law Section's Executive Committee is hosting a complimentary lunch discussion in Los Angeles for any law students or new lawyers to explore careers in public service. The panelists will discuss their careers dedicated to public service and the qualities they look for when hiring.
