

JOIN US FOR A DISCUSSION FOR STUDENTS AND NEW LAWYERS WHO ARE THINKING OF PURSUING A PUBLIC SERVICE CAREER

Ever wondered what a career in the public law sector is really like? This panel discussion is for you! The Public Law Section's Executive Committee is hosting a complimentary lunch discussion in Berkeley for any students or new lawyers to explore careers in public service. The panel, sponsored by Sidley Austin LLP, will be moderated by Dean Erwin Chemerinsky. The panelists will discuss their careers dedicated to public service and the qualities they look for when hiring.

MONDAY, MARCH 4, 2019

12:50 – 2:00 PM

UC Berkeley School of Law
225 Bancroft Way, Berkeley

RSVP to Nikki Smith nikki.smith@calawyers.org
by 02/28/2019

Don't miss this opportunity to meet influential public officials and private attorneys specializing in public law. Attendees who qualify will also receive:

- Free membership to the Public Law Section
- 10% discount on CEB programs co-sponsored by the Public Law Section, as well as discounts on select CEB publications
- Free subscription to the quarterly Public Law Journal
- E-news Public Law Section updates
- MCLE programs offered by the California Lawyer's Association
- Webinars and a self-study online catalog offering MCLE credits throughout the year
- Discounted admission to the annual California Public Records & Open Meetings Conference

SPONSORED BY:

SIDLEY

INVITED FEATURED SPEAKERS

Suzanne Ambrose
*Executive Officer
of the CA State
Personnel Board*

Greta S. Hansen
*Chief Assistant
County Counsel
Santa Clara County*

Janill L. Richards
*Principal Deputy
Solicitor General
Cal. Dept. of Justice*

Brian Stretch
*Former U.S. Attorney for Northern District
of CA Partner,
Sidley Austin*

MODERATOR
Dean Erwin Chemerinsky
*UC Berkeley
School of Law*