(1) Welcome/Introductions and Luncheon Program

Welcome and Opening Remarks by Heather Rosing, President, CLA; James P. Hill, Chair of Board of Representatives, CLA; and Ona Dosunmu, Executive Director, CLA.

Artificial Intelligence Is Here to Help You and Your Practice

Are you afraid that artificial intelligence will replace you? If you are, this session will allay your fears. Learn how artificial intelligence can make you a better, more efficient and effective lawyer; how to use analytics to make better decisions about your practice; and how to most effectively use Fastcase (a CLA member benefit) and all of its tools.

Speaker: Dr. Phil Rosenthal, Fastcase, Inc.; Washington D.C.

MCLE: .75 Hour

Thursday, June 13
1:15 PM-2:30 PM

(2) A Practical Approach to Updating Your Law Firm's Technology

The legal profession, not formerly known for tech savvy, has developed many technological advances in the fields of security, automation, integration, and communication. This program will outline technology that may streamline processes and increase efficiency in solo or small firm practices. Learn how to evaluate your law firm's technology needs, understand the ethical responsibilities of storing and maintaining client data electronically, and determine whether additional infrastructure may provide competitive advantages.

Speakers: Jennifer M. Stier, Esq., San Mateo; Chelsea J. Suttman, Esq., San Mateo

MCLE: 1.25 Hours

(3) The Mobile Lawyer and Professional Responsibility: Confidentiality in the Digital Age

Lawyers are open for business 24-hours a day. They communicate via Social Media, on smartphones, tablets and notebooks while in coffee shops, taxicabs, airports and other public spaces. This program will review recent ethics rules addressing technology, and will provide tools to protect confidences and privacy for both attorney and client.

Speaker: Perry Segal, Charon Law, Redwood City

MCLE: 1.25 Hours of Which .75 Hour Applies to Legal Ethics

(4) Advising Entrepreneurial Clients

This program will acquaint you with the many issues challenging a start-up entrepreneur who needs to build a solid legal foundation on which to run his/her business. Key program topics include formations, founders agreements, tax options, and initial vendor/customer legal arrangements.

Speaker: Bennet W. Root, Jr., Esq., Pasadena

MCLE: 1.25 Hours

Thursday, June 13
2:45 PM-4:00 PM

(5) Client Trust Accounting - Keeping in Check

This program will cover an attorney's ethical obligations and State Bar rules concerning Client Trust Accounting—a leading issue for attorney discipline. A State Bar of California expert will offer key information to keep you in check.

Speaker: David C. Carr, Member, State Bar of California Committee on Professional Responsibility and Conduct, San Diego

MCLE: 1.25 Hours Legal Ethics; Legal Specialization: 1.25 Hours Legal Malpractice

(6) E-Discovery for the Solo and Small Firm Practitioner

Learn the basics of e-discovery best practices from a litigator, discovery referee and eDiscovery provider who will explain how to approach and manage e-discovery in a solo or small firm setting. Topics will include preservation, collection, review, analysis and production.

Speakers: Jeffrey Benz, Benz Law Group/Benz ADR, Los Angeles; Jennifer Lee, Sr. Litigation Support Project Manager, Huntington Beach; Jill Ragan, D4 Discovery, San Diego

MCLE: 1.25 Hours

(7) Low Cost to Free Technology for the Solo or Small Firm: Maximizing Your Practice on a Budget

This program will outline ways to create a more efficient law office using low or no-cost solutions. Learn about legal research tools, practice management tools, use of paralegals and temporary staff; and appearance services. Speakers also will address share file structure (naming) for a digital office, useful office equipment, and legal issues with cloud storage.

Speakers: Robert M. Klein, Esq., Los Angeles; Steven M. Mayer, Esq., Encino

MCLE: 1.25 Hours

Thursday, June 13
4:15 PM-5:15 PM

(8) Plenary Session

What Every Lawyer Needs to Know About Social Media

While Social Media presents great opportunities for small firms to promote themselves, it also presents many ethical perils. Find out how to use social media to trigger calls from potential clients, and not the State Bar.

Speakers: Bennet G. Kelley, Internet Law Center, Santa Monica; Jonathan M. Lurie, Esq., Sacramento

MCLE: 1 Hour Legal Ethics

Thursday, June 13
5:30 PM-6:30 PM

(9) Exhibitor Wine & Cheese Reception

Join us in the Exhibit area for our opening night reception, and establish a rapport with our Solo Summit vendor representatives. Featured during the reception is the specially arranged “Head Shot” Truck (located curbside at the Conference Center Porte Cochere), sponsored by the CLA Solo and Small Firm Section. This is one of two opportunities for you to get your professional photo taken for your social media endeavors (limited and on a first-come first serve basis.). If you miss this chance, the Solo Section will set up a photo studio on Friday evening at their annual Reception and Awards Presentation.

FRIDAY

Friday, June 14
7:30 AM-8:45 AM

(10) Networking Continental Breakfast

Kick start your day at the Summit’s entertaining networking breakfast. Begin forming key connections during this fun session. Not for MCLE credit, but RSVP on Course Selector.

Friday, June 14
9:00 AM-10:15 AM

(11) Graphics and Technology at Trial: David Can Beat Goliath

Jurors expect to receive information visually, and they remember and believe visual presentations. A litigator and graphics consultant will teach you budget-conscious ways to make visual presentations at trial.

Speaker: Michael Kelleher, Esq., Oakland

MCLE: 1.25 Hours

(12) Legal Ethics & Privacy, Protecting Your Clients and Your Office

Are you aware of your ethical responsibilities regarding privacy security in your office? At this session you will learn practical cyber security and offline protective measures to safeguard your clients' sensitive information and prevent violations in your office. Speakers: Mari J. Frank, Esq., Laguna Niguel; Emory Roane, Esq., San Diego

MCLE: 1.25 Hours Legal Ethics

(13) Understanding & Evaluating Legal Research Tools

Most lawyers don't fully understand the technology powering their legal research tools. Learn how engineers, law librarians, and other experts evaluate legal research tools, including case citators, relevancy rankings, and other features, so you can identify the best legal research tool for your practice.

Speakers: B. Robert Farzad, Esq., Santa Ana; Mark Gediman, Esq., Riverside; Ben Pedrick, CTO, Judicata, San Francisco

MCLE: 1.25 Hours

Friday, June 14
10:30 AM-11:45 AM

(14) Data Security: Know Your Obligations, Know Your Risks

Data security is not simply a smart risk management step for solo and small firm practitioners. Specific legal and ethical obligations require law firms to provide data security for both firm and client information. This program will review the ethical obligations, present strategies for compliance, and explain the risks that law firms face in this connected environment.

Speakers: Jonathan Levine; Pritzker Levine LLP, Oakland; William Pfaff, District Attorney's Office, Cyber Crime Division, Los Angeles

MCLE: 1.25 Hours of Which 1 Hour Applies to Legal Ethics

(15) Small Law Firm Marketing: Discipline and Persistence for Success

Marketing legal services is a process, not an event, and must be thoughtful, disciplined, consistent, and in compliance with the Rules of Professional Conduct. Learn how to design a plan that is realistic and aimed at the target. Topics covered include market exposure, writing articles, and social media.

Speakers: Peter N. Brewer, Esq., Palo Alto; Peter M. Rehon, Esq., San Jose
