

Jointly presented by the California Lawyers Association, American Arbitration Association and JAMS

Opportunities and Perspectives: How Young Professionals Can and Will Shape ADR

Thursday, August 29, 2019 | 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

Arnold & Porter 3000 El Camino Real, Five Palo Alto Square, Suite 500, Palo Alto, CA 94306

This event jointly sponsored by the American Arbitration Association (AAA) and JAMS will address arbitration and mediation practices, ways to get involved with ADR young professional groups, and strategies for serving as counsel on arbitration and mediation cases. Topics include Consideration of court vs. arbitration procedures, including benefits and disadvantages, Comparison of mediation and arbitration in the dispute resolution process, Review of state and federal ADR statutes and Contrast and comparison of the different types of arbitration (commercial, employment, construction, international, etc.) and the rules that apply, Review of leading ADR provider rules and processes and a discussion of legal issues addressed by ADR in the technology field.

Panelists

- Gary Benton—SVAMC
- Amy Endiocott—Arnold & Porter
- Aaron Gothelf—AAA
- Serena Lee—JAMS
- Ana Sambold—CLA
- Alexadra Stathopoulos—CYLA

Thank You to Our Sponsors

AMERICAN
ARBITRATION
ASSOCIATION®

YoungProfessionals

Arnold & Porter

Visit www.calawyers.org for more information about this event and other exciting opportunities for education and networking.

Learn More:

CLICK HERE