▲ [76] Spotlight on the Supreme Court Luncheon

Thursday, October 10
12:15 PM – 1:30 PM

Spotlight on the Supreme Court is a CLA signature event during which attendees get to know our California Supreme Court justices while enjoying lunch. This year, the program will feature a lively conversation with the Court's longest serving and newest justices, Justice Ming Chin and Justice Joshua Groban. Two seasoned appellate attorneys, Reuben Ginsburg and Katy Graham, will interview these two prominent jurists.

$55 Ticket Fee.

Justice Ming W. Chin became an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of California in March 1996 after his appointment by Governor Pete Wilson. He previously served as the Presiding Justice of the First District Court of Appeal, Division Three, in San Francisco.

Prior to serving on the appellate bench, Justice Chin was a judge of the Alameda County Superior Court. Before his appointment to the bench, Justice Chin was a partner in an Oakland law firm, where he specialized in business and commercial litigation.

Justice Joshua P. Groban began his term as an Associate Justice on the California Supreme Court in January 2019. Prior to taking the bench, Justice Groban served as the Senior Advisor to Governor Jerry Brown, advising the governor on judicial appointments, legal policy and legislative issues. Justice Groban received numerous awards from bar groups and other legal organizations for his work on judicial appointments. Justice Groban has taught State Appellate Practice at the UCLA School of Law. Prior to working for the governor's office, Justice Groban was a private practitioner, specializing in complex civil litigation, with a focus on antitrust, internal investigations, and intellectual property.

7:30 AM – 8:45 AM

Safe and Sound: How to Survive and Thrive in a Heightened Data Security Environment

Speaker: Jared D. Correia, Esq., Founder & CEO, Red Cave Law Firm Consulting

While the proliferation of cloud and mobile technologies has increased productivity for lawyers, it has also added to their data security concerns.

Law firm data management policies must combine federal and international data protection rules with professional standards of client confidentiality – but mere compliance with existing rules and standards is not enough. Jared Correia will discuss the increasing expectations for client data security, including best practices for the changing law firm environment and practical suggestions and tools for anticipating and implementing these practices.

The BLS Breakfast will also feature the presentation of the Section's Lifetime Achievement Award to Gordon K. Davidson, Corporate Partner at Fenwick & West. Gordy is consistently ranked among the world's leading U.S. corporate/M&A lawyers, startup and emerging company lawyers and venture capital lawyers.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2019
10:45 AM – 12:00 PM

General Session

California Lawyers Association Ethics Committee

☼ [1] Professional Responsibility in California: Past, Present and Future

Lawyers in California have experienced significant changes in the past couple of years. New Rules of Professional Conduct became effective November 1, 2018. The State Bar of California spun out the Sections and Young Lawyers Association in order to focus exclusively on public protection. This presentation will introduce California Lawyers Associations new Legal Ethics Committee and explore what these changes, and others, portend for the practice of law in California.

CLE: 1.0 Hour Legal Ethics

Speakers: Alison Buchanan, Rachele Cohen, Karen Goodman, David Majchrzak, Neil Wertlieb (moderator)

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2019
1:45 PM – 2:45 PM

Business Law Section

☼ [2] Recent Developments Affecting Partnership and Limited Liability

This program will survey development in law and regulations that affect partnerships, limited liability companies and limited partnerships operating in California. It will include a summary of some of the matters published by the PLLC committee as well as other recent developments. The program will include discussions such as the characterizations of partnership interests as securities, piercing the veil for singular and multiple member LLC's and the LLC guide.

CLE: 1.0 Hour

Judicial Council

Co-sponsored with California Lawyers Association Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee

☼ [3] Pathways to Achieving Judicial Diversity

Diversifying the profession and our bench is critical for all Californians. Join the Judicial Council session with judicial and legal panelists to learn more about the new Judicial Diversity Toolkit, how you can partner with local courts in your community, and how to best position yourself on the road to judicial appointment.

CLE: 1.0 Hour Recognition and Elimination of Bias in the Legal Profession and society

Intellectual Property Law Section

☼ [4] Big Concerns with Big Data

The expansion of the Internet, e-commerce, and storage capacity combined with powerful analytics has resulted in the collection and analysis of "big data." For businesses, the data lends itself to competitive advantage. Businesses benefit through better understanding of consumer preferences and trends, and they are willing to pay handsomely. However, it also leads to big problems regarding intellectual property, compliance, and licensing. The president of a media company and an IP business attorney will explore how big data is collected, packaged, sold and subsequently utilized.

CLE: 1.0 Hour

*Labor and Employment Law Section
Co-Sponsored with The State Bar of California, Lawyers' Assistance Program*

☼ [5] The Impact of the #MeToo Movement on Employment Laws, Investigations, Practices, Policies and Litigation

Sexual harassment in the workplace is nothing new, but now it is in the spotlight. Have complaints increased? Have your policies or practices changed? Should they? How are investigations used in litigation? How do you handle settlements? This session delves into the process, pitfalls, and consequences that can follow claims of sexual harassment in this new era.

CLE: 1.0 Hour Recognition and Elimination of Bias in the Legal Profession and Society

California Lawyers Association – Lawyering Skills

☼ [6] Wellness Strategies for the Legal Community

Discuss how prevalent substance abuse and mental health issues are among attorneys. Learn how substance use and mental health issues impairs attorneys' ability to perform legal services competently. Lastly, this panel will describe the signs and symptoms of addiction, depression, anxiety, and stress, and provides information on the Lawyer Assistance Program and other resources available to attorneys.

CLE: 1.0 Hour Competence Issues

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2019
3:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Business Law Section

☼ [7] Ethical Issues and Pitfalls for Nonprofit Boards and Their Advisors

This presentation focuses on the following issues in advising nonprofit organizations: identifying who is the client, avoiding representation of adverse interests, payment of fees by a third party and competency and independent judgment.

CLE: 1.0 Hour Legal Ethics

Intellectual Property Law Section

☼ [8] Representing Victims in Court of Cyber Exploitation

Cyber Exploitation (aka Revenge Porn) is a growing legal problem. Learn about state and federal legal responses to the problem and how to counsel clients in addressing revenge porn issues through civil and criminal enforcement.

CLE: 1.0 Hour

Litigation Section

Co-Sponsored with Labor and Employment Law Section

☼ [9] A Review of Recent Private Attorney General Act Case Law

Once a peripheral aspect of California wage and hour litigation, Private Attorney General Act cases have come center-stage. This presentation will cover key recent decisions of the California courts (federal and state) and offer practical takeaways for employment litigators on both sides of the “v,” and neutrals. Learn how to identify open questions that remain in this fast-developing area of the law, and how appellate courts might handle these issues in future cases.

CLE: 1.0 Hour

Public Law Section

☼ [10] Navigating the Adjudicative Hearing Process before the Office of Administrative Hearings

Various types of hearing, including those disciplining certain professionals licensed in California, are adjudicated by administrative law judges (ALJs) at the Office of Administrative Hearings. The client's success at these hearings will depend on attorney's ability to navigate the administrative hearing process. At this session, ALJs will share their perspectives, resources, and practical tips critical to increasing success at adjudicative hearings before the Office of Administrative Hearings.

CLE: 1.0 Hour

Real Property Law Section

☼ [11] Litigating and Mediating Your Construction Dispute

This program will cover the nuts and bolts of litigating construction disputes. The focus will be on construction defects, residential and commercial, as well as cover issues relating to public projects. The program will also cover best practices and advanced strategies for mediating construction cases. The learning objective is to have the practitioner understand how to prepare or defend these claims, what needs to be done in order to get the case ready for mediation, and how to present the case to the mediator.

CLE: 1.0 Hour

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2019
4:15 PM – 5:15 PM

California Lawyers Association – Lawyering Skills

☼ [12] Client Trust Accounting— Keeping in Check

This program will cover an attorney's ethical obligations and State Bar rules concerning Client Trust Accounting— a leading issue for attorney discipline. A State Bar of California expert will offer key information to keep you in check.

☼ [13] Ejusdem Generis? Statutory Interpretation for Lawyers

What's "Ejusdem Generis"? How about "The Rule of Last Antecedent"? Did that defendant just evoke "The Rule of Lenity"? Judges use statutory interpretation principles to interpret statutes and contracts, and to decide litigated cases. Knowledge of statutory interpretation theories and canons can help lawyers better understand case decisions, accurately draft contract clauses, persuasively argue positions in litigation, and predict outcomes for clients. This presentation will provide a basic overview of the most common statutory interpretation principles used in state and federal courts, including the Supreme Court, and the dominant legal theories underlying them.

Litigation Section

☼ [14] Trial Lawyer Hall of Fame Series; Being Human: Building a Relationship with Your Jurors

Lawyers are people but when they get in front of a jury they can turn into attorney-bots. In this program, renowned trial lawyer and 2018 Trial Lawyer Hall of Fame inductee Jennifer Keller describes how to connect with jurors as human beings so attorneys can build a relationship of trust that will make them more open to arguments.

Public Law Section

☼ [15] They Posted What? Where Social Media, Employer Interests and the First Amendment Intersect

This program will analyze legal issues connected to "Social Media" in the public sector workplace, including how social media can be a tool in the litigation arsenal of public employers and employees alike. Learn about the constitutional boundaries at play, and where the government's interest as the employer intersects with a public employee's 1st Amendment rights. Speakers will address issues surrounding social media in the investigatory and litigation context, and how such policies can be permissibly enforced within the bounds of 1st Amendment jurisprudence, as well as how to avoid running afoul of related state and federal statutes.

CLE: 1.0 Hour

Real Property Law Section

☼ [16] Short Term Rentals: Surveying the Legal Landscape of Airbnb, VRBO, and Other Online Rental Housing Platforms

Given the ever-growing affordable housing crisis, many homeowners and tenants are now turning to short-term rental platforms to supplement their incomes and to help offset housing costs. As a result, numerous cities have enacted laws to regulate short-term rentals. This course will provide examples of different municipal regulations regarding short-term rentals; discuss potential penalties and damages for non-complying hosts; explain the appropriate remedies available to hosts in the event the short-term guest gains tenancy rights; and offer practical guidance regarding home-share compliance and stopping tenant home-sharing activities.

☼ [44] Top Ten Myths about Privilege for Trust and Estates Practitioners

Battles over assertions of privilege can be time-consuming, costly, and can hold up litigation. The last thing an attorney wants to do is assert unmeritorious objections of privilege only to have their objections overruled and sanctions imposed at a discovery hearing. This presentation will identify common misconceptions about the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, common interest doctrine, and mediation privilege, so that practitioners can better assess privilege issues and choose their battles accordingly.

[50] Appointed Attorneys in Conservatorship Cases are Advocates, Not Reporters

In many probate courts, attorneys appointed to represent conservatees and proposed conservatees are under pressure to act as reporters to the court rather than as advocates for the interests of their clients as those interests are determined by their clients. The speakers argue that existing law and ethical rules require appointed attorneys to act as a vigorous advocate for their clients and prohibit them from acting as reporters to the court.

☼ [71] Recognizing and Understanding Underpinnings of Bias and Discrimination

This will be a co-presentation by psychologist Angela Moskovis, Ph.D. and David Leatherberry who is counsel for the San Diego Psychological Association and who represents psychologists throughout the state. This presentation will focus on subtle ways in which we all manifest bias, looking at examples ranging from the humorous to the heartbreaking. Dr. Moskovis will lead a discussion of the psychological underpinnings of harmful bias, with the objective being that the more we recognize subtle manifestations of bias, and recognize how those manifestations in ourselves may be influenced by our own self-care, the more we are able to positively influence and redirect bias in social interactions.

☼ [75] Operating Your Practice Under the New Rules of Professional Court

The California Supreme Court issued orders approving the new Rules of Professional Conduct effective November 1, 2018. The new Rules represent a wholesale revision of the prior Rules of Professional Conduct to bring them more in line with the ABA Model Rules. While medium and large firms have staff and in-house training equipped to implement the changes wrought by these new Rules, solo and small firm practitioners are not so fortunate, and must fend for themselves. This program summarizes the view from the small firm trenches and identifies the salient changes and how best to adapt to these new ethical guidelines. As a bonus, there will be a discussion of SB945, the Legislature's revisions to the mediation confidentiality statutes, with proposed forms for use to ensure compliance.
