

Taxation Section Resolution Program Nomination Form

The Taxation Section's Resolution Program was formed to recognize individuals who have made significant contributions to the Taxation Section or California tax community during their careers. Resolutions are awarded at the time of retirement or a lifetime achievement resolution is awarded for those who assume a significantly reduced role in the profession in lieu of retiring. If the nomination is accepted and Resolution awarded, the contents of the Resolution may be derived from the information contained on this nomination form. Please complete this form with as much detail as possible to submit an individual for consideration of a Resolution.
